Review of the Order of St Asaph

From: Very Revd Nigel Williams, Chair of the Order of St Asaph Advisory Panel
June 2022

Background

The Order of St Asaph was approved by the Standing Committee in November 2012 as a way of recognising and honouring the outstanding contribution of lay people across the diocese. The award specifically recognises outstanding service to the diocese, rather than service at a more local level. The Advisory Panel of the Order of St Asaph would like to widen the criteria for the award so that outstanding service at a more local level can also be recognised with this award. This might include service to a church, a school or a Mission Area, for example. This proposal has the support of the Bishop of St Asaph.

Action required

Members of the Standing Committee are asked to approve this proposal and the amendments to the criteria for the awarding of the Order of St Asaph as detailed on the attached nomination form.

Esgobaeth Llanelwy : Diocese of St Asaph

Urdd Sant Asaff : The Order of St Asaph

Ffurflen Enwebiad : Nomination Form

The Order of St Asaph is a way of recognising and honouring the outstanding contribution of lay persons to the life of the diocese, particularly at an appropriate point on the completion of service in a particular way or in a particular role. The award may be made in recognition of service to the diocese, the mission area or any significant aspect of the life of the local church.

1. Completed nomination forms should be submitted to Esgobty by the end of February each year.
2. As not all nominations may be successful, nominees should not be informed that their names are being put forward for consideration, to avoid disappointment.
