

Rev Dr Peter Walker

Peter was Professor of Biblical Studies at Trinity School for Ministry (near Pittsburgh, USA) from 2012 to 2017. He studied Classics and Early Church History at Cambridge University and then did extensive research at post-doctoral level on attitudes to Jerusalem within the Bible and the era of the early church. For many years he taught at Wycliffe Hall within the University of Oxford and has led guided tours to the lands of the Bible for over 30 years. Peter Walker is widely acknowledged as one of the foremost experts on the Holy Land. His book, In the Steps of Jesus, has come to be recognized as the authoritative guide for Christian visitors.

Dr Catherine Wilcox

AFTER DINNER SPEAKER

Dr Catherine Wilcox is a senior lecturer in Creative Writing at Manchester Metropolitan University, and academic director of The Manchester Writing School. She was educated at Durham and London Universities and has a degree in English and a doctorate in Theology. Writing as Catherine Fox, she is author of eight novels that explore themes of the spiritual and the physical with insight and humour. Rev Graham Archer

Graham's passion for growing local churches is impossible to ignore, with over 30 years working as a missionary, pastor and church planter. Having qualified as a biochemist, Graham spent two years working for a missionary society in Japan before training for ordination. He served his curacy in Ipswich before planting churches in Ipswich and Felixstowe for the next 14 years. He was a vicar in Southampton for 13 years, before starting his role at CPAS in October 2012. His role involves the leadership and management of CPAS' work across the UK and Republic of Ireland, leadership training and patronage appointments.

Rev Liz Devall

Liz was ordained 11 years ago and is a parish priest in the Manchester Diocese. She has taught prayer and spirituality on the Authorised Lay Ministry course and has taken a lead on diocesan prayer events. She has a particular interest in pilgrimage having been chaplain on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Jordan. Liz has developed Virtual pilgrimages during lockdown which incorporated her skills as an amateur photographer. Liz will be the chaplain during the conference.
